MEDIA BUREAU ACTION

MEDIA BUREAU SEEKS COMMENT ON FIAT CHRYSLER AUTOMOBILES US LLC PETITION FOR WAIVER OF ACCESSIBLE USER INTERFACES REQUIREMENTS

MB Docket No. 12-108

Comment Date: July 7, 2017

Reply Comment Date: July 18, 2017

Fiat Chrysler Automobiles US LLC (Chrysler) has filed a petition<sup>1</sup> requesting that the Commission grant a waiver of the Commission's rules requiring the accessibility of user interfaces on covered digital apparatus.<sup>2</sup> Section 79.107 of the Commission's rules requires that digital apparatus be designed, developed, and fabricated so that control of appropriate built-in functions (i.e., those functions used for the reception, play back, or display of video programming) included in the apparatus are accessible to and usable by individuals who are blind or visually impaired, if achievable.<sup>3</sup> In addition, Section 79.109(a) of the Commission's rules requires that digital apparatus with built-in closed captioning and/or video description capability must include a mechanism that is reasonably comparable to a button, key, or icon for activating the closed captioning and video description.<sup>4</sup> The rules further require covered entities to ensure that individuals with disabilities are aware of the availability of accessible digital apparatus and have ready access to information and support that will allow them to operate such devices.<sup>5</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Covered digital apparatus are those that are designed to receive or play back video programming transmitted in digital format simultaneously with sound, excluding navigation devices. See 47 U.S.C. § 303(aa)(1); 47 CFR § 79.107(a)(1).

<sup>3</sup> 47 CFR § 79.107(a)(1). See also Accessibility of User Interfaces, and Video Programming Guides and Menus; Accessible Emergency Information, and Apparatus Requirements for Emergency Information and Video Description: Implementation of the Twenty-First Century Communications and Video Accessibility Act of 2010, MB Docket Nos. 12-108, 12-107, Report and Order and Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 28 FCC Rcd 17330, 17363-71, paras. 53-63 (2013) (Accessible User Interfaces Order).

<sup>5</sup> 47 CFR § 79.107(d)-(e). See also Accessibility of User Interfaces, and Video Programming Guides and Menus, MB Docket No. 12-108, Second Report and Order, Order on Reconsideration, and Second Further Notice of Proposed Rulemaking, 30 FCC Rcd 13914 (2015).

Manufacturers of digital apparatus are responsible for compliance with the rules, which set a compliance deadline of December 20, 2016, subject to certain exceptions.<sup>6</sup>

Chrysler requests waivers of the accessible user interfaces requirements applicable to “rear entertainment systems” (RES) on 7,176 Dodge Journey vehicles, which were released to dealerships without the necessary audio files that make the built-in video functions accessible to individuals who are blind or visually impaired.<sup>7</sup> A total of 4,440 of these vehicles have been sold, and 2,736 vehicles remain with dealers.<sup>8</sup> Chrysler explains that the issue inadvertently resulted from “supplier error,” and it has identified the non-compliant vehicles, which can each be made compliant with the accessible user interfaces rules by installing the requisite audio file in the vehicle’s computer system.<sup>9</sup> According to Chrysler, the company instructed dealers to make the update on all unsold vehicles before delivering them to customers, and it now requests a retroactive waiver of Section 79.107 of the Commission’s rules as it pertains to the unsold vehicles.<sup>10</sup> On vehicles already sold, Chrysler plans to install the requisite audio file on every vehicle that returns to the dealership, and the company is notifying owners of non-compliant vehicles through writing and phone calls.<sup>11</sup> Chrysler requests a permanent waiver of Section 79.107 of the Commission’s rules for those vehicles already sold.<sup>12</sup> We seek comment on Chrysler’s request.

Pursuant to Sections 1.415 and 1.419 of the Commission’s rules, 47 CFR §§ 1.415, 1.419, interested parties may file comments and reply comments on or before the dates indicated on the first page of this document. Comments may be filed using the Commission’s Electronic Comment Filing System (ECFS). See Electronic Filing of Documents in Rulemaking Proceedings, 63 FR 24121 (1998).
